FESTIVAL'S RULES

A.

The Bug River Folklore Festival is organized by the Culture Centre in Sokołów Podlaski since 2002.

The festival hosts amateur folk ensembles artistically developed or stylized, representing high performance level: youth groups over 16 years old and adults.

This festival is not a competition.

The aim of the festival is to promote folklore and folk culture of individual countries and regions, show the richness of cultural diversity of Europe and the other countries.

The main festival concerts take place on the stage of the Culture Centre in Sokołów Podlaski, but also outside of the city – in different places of our region.
